Defendants.

19 Notice is given that Wittke Waste Equipment (“Wittke”), defendant is the above-named
20 case, hereby appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit from the decisions
21 and orders and judgments of the district court, entered in this action on May 21, 2012 (Docket
22 #252) and September 4, 2012, (Docket #278) (collectively, “the Judgments”)¹ and from any and all 23 adverse rulings or interlocutory orders, judgments, decrees, decisions, rulings, and opinions that

¹ Wittke does not believe that the judgment entered on September 4, 2012, is final under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b) because it does not dispose of the Mariolles' claims against Defendants Labrie Environmental Group and Federal Signal Corporation. Given, however, that the district court has indicated on the docket that this matter is closed, Wittke has filed this notice of appeal to ensure that it preserves its right to seek redress before the Ninth Circuit. In addition, Labrie and Federal Signal have filed a motion for amended judgment before the district court that if granted would result in a final appealable judgment for all parties (Docket #279).

1 merged into and became part of the Judgments, that shaped the Judgments, that are related to the 2 Judgments, that are incorporated in, antecedent to, or ancillary to the Judgments, and/or upon
3 which the Judgments are based; and from the Court's orders: denying Wittke's Renewed Motion
4 for Judgment as a Matter of Law, entered July 30, 2012 and September 4, 2012 (Docket #272 &
5 #277), and denying Wittke's Motion for a New Trial or Remittitur, entered September 4, 2012
6 (Docket #277).
